A DECLARATION OF INHERITANCE

When in the course of human events men become reconciled to God and separated from the world, it is deemed mandatory that they should declare the good news of their divine inheritance.

We hold these truths to be immutable, that man was created by God in His own image; that through sin he became dead in sin and was separated from God; that said separation resulted in the loss of life, liberty and true happiness. That to restore these benefits to man, God gave His Son, Jesus Christ, to die on the cross as a substitute for the sin of man. That the death of Jesus Christ, who knew no sin, satisfied the demands of a holy God; that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself; that through the death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ, man gains entry into the presence of God. That man, through faith-obedience in the finished work of Christ, becomes a child of God.

According to the promises set forth in God's holy Word, we hereby declare that as His purchased possession, we have become heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ. We herewith submit the extent of our inheritance to a dead world.

God has chosen those sanctified by faith in Christ to be His inheritance.

He has freely forgiven sin through Jesus Christ.

He has given believers the free gift of eternal life.

He has given the Holy Spirit as the earnest of the inheritance and the power for holy living.

He has made each redeemed person a new creation, based upon the good work of Christ.

He has given His heirs the freedom to love both God and man.

He has given the sufficiency of His grace for the tests of life.

He has granted to each believer the liberty to live a life of faith-obedience, saying 'no' to self and 'yes' to God.

He has made His saints heirs of all things in Christ, and has blessed them with every spiritual blessing in heaven.

He has provided an inheritance that is incorruptible and undefiled, reserved in heaven unto the day of redemption.

We, therefore, the heirs of God by the Word of God, solemnly publish and declare that our inheritance is available to any man who calls upon the name of Jesus Christ for salvation; that God highly exalted Him and gave Him the name which is above every name; and that one day, at the name of Jesus, every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

DEDICATION

MRS. RUTH MILES

Who can find a virtuous woman?
for her price is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her,
so that he shall have no need of spoil.
She will do him good and not evil
all the days of her life.

On occasion people cross our path who, in an obvious way, exemplify in their life, a particular verse or passage of scripture. As we read this Proverb's passage we are reminded of an individual at the Washington Bible College, who has served for many years and lived out the truth of this passage. There are few areas of the ministry here that she has not contributed to or assisted in at some time during her years of service.

Beginning with the days of the evening institute, out of which the College grew, she served as secretary. She later married the man who became President of the College. When her children were grown she began serving in the business office, later becoming involved in the area of mailing where she presently is active. For the past twenty years she has been the backbone of the Women's Auxiliary which has contributed significantly to the College and Seminary in the areas of prayer and projects. She has also maintained an active interest in the ministry of the Student Wives Fellowship throughout its existence. Along with this lifetime of service she has been a faithful prayer warrior for the College and Seminary.

All who have known this woman have been impressed with her generosity and total unselfishness in her ministry to the faculty, staff and students. It is fitting that we dedicate the 1976 Milestone to this one who has faithfully served at WBC for almost forty years and has "done her husband good all the days of her life" - Mrs. Ruth Miles.

As our nation prepares for its Bicentennial, WBC students take advantage of the college's location during their days of preparation.

PRESIDENT MILES

INHERITED LIBERTY

In this bicentennial year, liberty seems to be the theme of the world. Yet how to achieve it eludes nations and their peoples. The word liberty has its opposite in the word bondage. In bondage men cry out for deliverance. Deliverance must come from an outside source - some power greater than that which holds the victim.

In Egypt the children of Israel were in bondage. "And the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage." Exodus 2:23b. Upon deliverance they sang, "I will sing unto the Lord for he hath triumphed gloriously . . . the Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation." Exodus 15:1, 2.

When Jesus Christ came forth from the grave it was a victory over sin and death. The statement, "You crucified Him but God raised Him," or similar words, occur four times in Peter's sermons in Acts. This liberty we enjoy over sin and death was purchased by Christ. We now stand emancipated because of the price He paid.

"Nothing in my hands I bring, simply to the cross I cling."

Is it not reasonable to assume that those who have inherited liberty as a gift would be concerned that others still in bondage would also enjoy this liberty? Paul states that his desire for the Jews to have this gift was so great that He would be willing to give it up that they might possess it. Christ laid down His life that we might have it. At Washington Bible College we believe that it is more important that this message of freedom be brought to a world in the bondage of sin and death than anything else. Christ made the issue plain when He said, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." May it not be said that we were disobedient unto Him who said "Ye shall be witnesses unto me . . . unto the uttermost part of the earth."

W.B.C. History

"And the things which thou has heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also."

About fifty years ago, three such men began individual teaching ministries in Washington, D.C. These ministries were to become the basic foundation of the Washington Bible College. In 1921, Mr. Edward W. Collamore incorporated his ministry of home Bible study courses into the American Home Bible Institute. Shortly after, in 1924, Dr. A. R. Kuldell founded the Bible Institute of Washington. Then, in 1930, Rev. C. W. Oyer began the Washington School of the Bible.

A growing fellowship between these three organizations revealed a common vision. The desire to provide training for young people called to serve God led to the union of the three schools. The Washington School of the Bible and the American Home Bible Institute were first united in 1938 under the name "Washington Bible Institute." In 1940, the Bible Institute of Washington joined the other two. Sixteen years later the name of the school was changed to Washington Bible College.

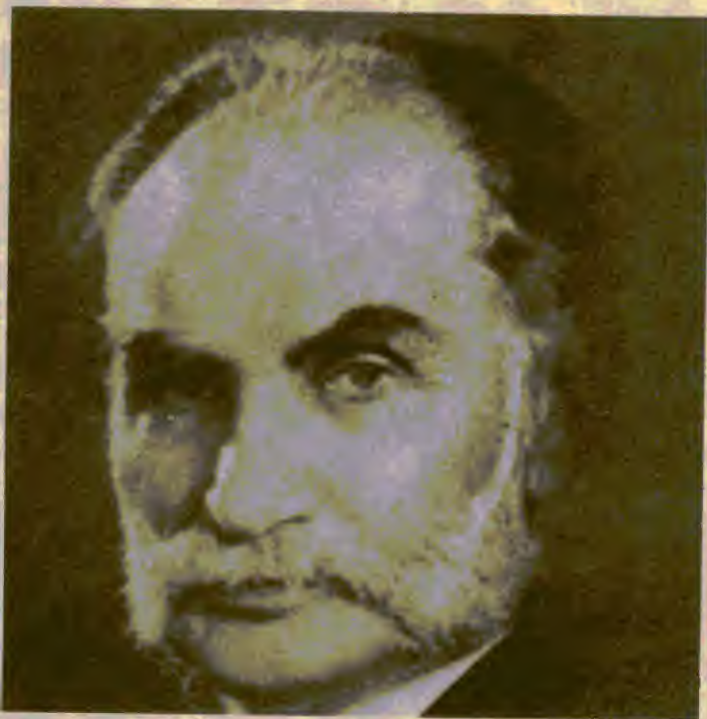

Originally, classes were held in the Open Door Church. As the number of students increased, a need for more space developed. In addition, interest in a day college program was growing. God's response to the need was two buildings at 1443-45 Rhode Island Ave., N.W. in 1946. As the school grew, additional buildings were purchased, totaling five by 1968.

In spite of these additions, space was still a problem. A lack of available property prompted a search for a new campus. The present campus in Lanham, Maryland was purchased in June 1969, and the new school year began at Lanham. Since then, WBC has expanded constantly.

However, a college is more than just buildings. God continues to provide faithful men just as He has in the past. Many goals have already been achieved. Many more wait to be realized. But as we look forward, we must thank God for the past heritage of faithful men who have helped make WBC what it is today.

STUDENT LIFE

For some, the day begins early with a class at an unearthly hour. Others take advantage of the early morn for well-liked activities of many kinds.

After chapel, students can be found in more classes, in the library, fellowshiping with friends, or just longing for lunch.

Student mailroom remains an ever-popular place on campus as students maintain ties with home and old friends. Yet, the students find life at Washington Bible College makes room for contact into a wider world of individuals.

WEEK OF EVANGELISM

This special week places emphasis on reaching others for Christ. Various weekly ministries give students a chance to put into practice the things they are learning in the classroom. These ministries include airport and campus evangelism, literature distribution, children's or adult open air meetings, and neighborhood visitation. Daily teams present the gospel in various areas surrounding the college. Every student chooses the team and the time he prefers for his participation in the weekly activities.

Art Williams of Open Air Campaigners lectured each day in chapel and guided the open air ministry throughout the week. His challenge to the student body was to give themselves to God, so He can use them more fully for His work.

IN MEMORY OF

MRS. ROWENA POSTON

Soon after Rowena Depew arrived in Washington, D.C. to work for the Government, she saw a notice in the newspaper announcing evening school classes at the American Home Bible Institute on Rhode Island Ave. She enrolled and was thrilled with the knowledge of the Word she was receiving.

In 1956 she married Rev. William C. Poston, our Registrar, who at that time was pastoring the Open Door Church in Washington, D.C. In 1965 she completed a needed subject and finished her Evening School work to become an Evening School alumna.

She served as Secretary of the Women's Auxiliary for eight years and when the duties of this office were divided she became the Corresponding Secretary, which office she held at the time of her death.

She was devoted to the Lord, a student of the Word, an active witness, a loyal supporter of every area of the College and Seminary, faithful in prayer as a Prayer Steward, a joyous Christian, a delight to others, and an encouragement in every trial or testing.

FOR BRETHREN, YE HAVE BEEN CALLED UNTO LIBERTY; ONLY
USE NOT LIBERTY FOR AN OCCASION TO
THE FLESH, BUT BY LOVE SERVE ONE ANOTHER.

GALATIANS 5:13

STUDENT MISSIONARY FELLOWSHIP

Student Missions Fellowship (SMF) is students gathering to pray for God's work in a particular area. It is hearing of God's answers to prayers, and as a result, individual interest is increasing. It is encouraging involvement and interest in missions around the world.

In addition to the weekly prayer bands, SMF promotes the financing of missionary projects. Students and other involved individuals give liberally to see these projects completed. The 1975 project was sponsoring nine WBC students as summer missionaries to South America. Participation in SMF not only gives students an opportunity to help change lives in other parts of the world, but it gives an opportunity to change lives at WBC.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCE

Early in November, SMF sponsored its first Mini-Missions Conference. Friends as well as students attended the conference on a Friday evening and Saturday at the College.

Each of the speakers gave insight into his field of service. At the beginning session, Wade Coggins, Executive Secretary of The Evangelical Foreign Missions Association, spoke on world wide missions. On Saturday, Cleo Shook, who served ten years as a missionary to Afghanistan, and Cullen Rast, missionary to Brazil, shared highlights from the field. Wade Coggins concluded the meetings with a message on how to prepare now for missions.

For those already interested in missions the mini-conference was an encouragement to become more involved. For others it was an opportunity to see what missions really is.

FALL AND WINTER LECTURES

Each year, the fall and winter lectures at the College provide special blessings to both students and faculty. This year's lectures were no exception. Mr. Donald Hubbard's messages in September and Dr. Andrew Telford's lectures in November included exhortations to be steadfast workers for Christ. Subjects ranging from depression to the Olivet Discourse carried the underlying message; "don't become quitters." Although the extent of blessing in each life cannot be measured, it can be said that each hearer was blessed.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Why do we need a Spiritual Life Day?

Amid the constant pressures of assignments due, it's easy to neglect our spiritual life. But we have a wise administration and faculty. They realize the need to take time to pray and meditate, and to fellowship. So, twice each semester a whole day is set aside simply for spiritual enrichment.

Concern for our spiritual life isn't limited to just spiritual life days. Daily chapel sessions provide a wide variety of emphasis, ranging from musical ministries to missionary challenges. Special weeks of ministry, such as this year's Alumni Bible Conference with Rev. David Moreland and the Jewish Evangelism Lectures with Rev. Marvin Rosenthal, also are directed to our individual needs. Countless new insights and personal blessings come from these days.

CHOIR

The Choir, just one of several musical teams of the College, tours much of the Eastern United States with the central purpose of introducing people to Jesus Christ. This year's theme is "Life, Liberty and Love in Christ." They challenge their audiences to dedicate their lives to Him.

WOMEN'S CHORUS

The Chorus, a group of 18 young women from the U.S.A. and 3 foreign countries, brings to you a widely-varied program of hymns, sacred anthems and contemporary music accompanied by piano, guitar and flute. The concert, biblical in content, is an enjoyable experience. They encourage Bible education and present the training available at the College as part of a young person's future.

MUSICAL TEAMS

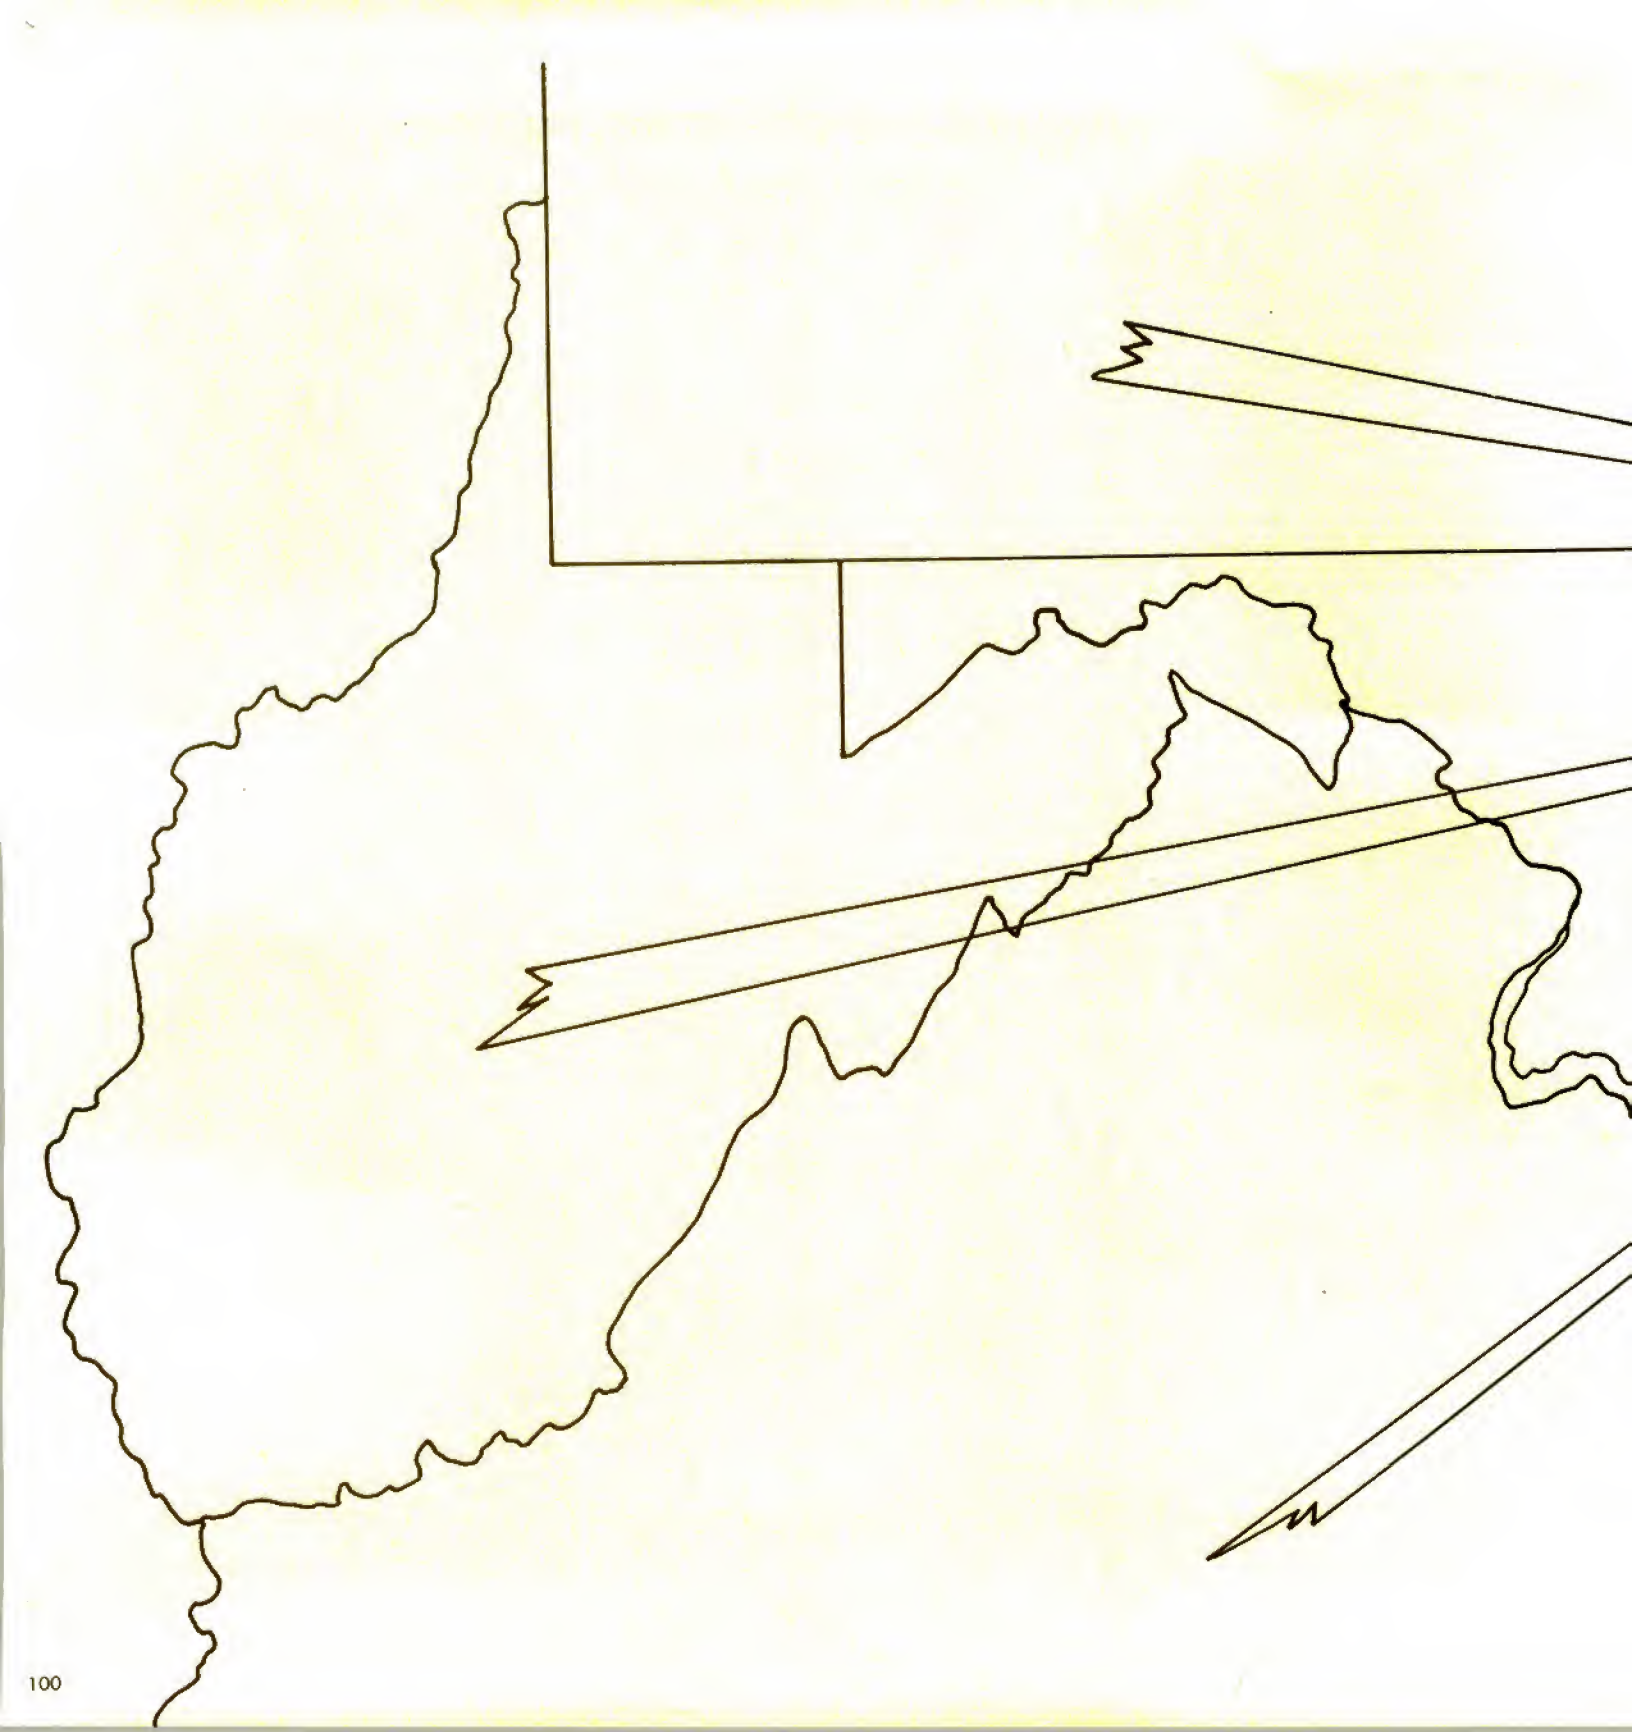

THE GOSPELAIRES - Buddy Howard, Dack Patrick, Randy Lindauere, Gary Vastola, Roger Seekell.

ADULT EDUCATION

"Expanded heritage" might best describe the Adult Education Department of WBC. Two of the three threads woven into the fabric of WBC's foundation were evening adult education classes. Even after the merger of three Bible institutes from 1938-1940 to form the Washington Bible Institute, classes continued to be held in the evenings until 1947. Introduction of daytime classes did not hinder the evening program, and 1975 found WBC continuing to build upon a firm foundation in adult education.

Maintaining a current program of study for an expected enrollment of about 1,000 is a full-time job for Mr. Carlton Long, Director of Adult Education. The Evening School has grown to be the second largest evening school among Bible colleges and Bible institutes. At the beginning of the spring semester, 1976, extension schools were held at eighteen locations spread over six states: Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina. The goal for 1976 is twenty-three extension schools by September.

"Our aim is to strengthen each church in its testimony and ministry by helping to develop the members into mature Christians and effective workers," says Mr. Long. As the Adult Education Department works toward equipping Christians through systematic Bible study, its ultimate purpose of magnifying and glorifying God is accomplished.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Correspondence Department, under the direction of Mr. Fred Schuppe, has been active since its beginning in 1921. Then it was known as the "American Home Bible Institute." Although the name was dropped in 1938 after the merger with the Washington School of the Bible, the ministry continued unabated.

When a student completes one of the thirteen courses offered by the Department, the College awards a certificate. A Preliminary Teacher Training Certificate is given after a student finishes the first six subjects. Many Christians are blessed through this outreach, and WBC shares in their growth in Christ.

BIBLE STUDY

Tuesday brings an extra amount of activity to the WBC campus. Each week, 100 to 125 people gather in the chapel at eleven in the morning for a special Bible Class. President Miles has been teaching the class for thirty years. He is presently taking the students through the book of Genesis.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Faithful women have played an important part in supporting WBC. For twenty years the Women's Auxiliary has been a primary source of strength to the college. These ladies faithfully pray for the school; its students, faculty, alumni, and its ministry. They aid the school financially and sponsor projects that benefit the college. Six such projects were taken on this year. Four refrigerators for the staff apartments, dishes and dishwasher racks for the kitchen, a public address system for the largest Linton classroom, and an IBM typewriter for the Mailing Department were all paid for by December. And the projects are continuing.

The Lord has greatly used the Women's Auxiliary in the work at WBC. For their prayers and promotion and their example, we are grateful.

Capital Bible Seminary prepares Christian men for full-time service in the Lord's work. This preparation includes three main areas of involvement: Biblical studies, evangelism, and an internship program.

Through Biblical studies, CBS students increase both their knowledge of God's word and their ability to study it independently. One result of these studies is added authority in preaching and teaching.

Since evangelism is considered an attitude and not just an action at CBS, there is an abiding concern for lost souls. Students and faculty alike are actively engaged in witnessing. Concern for missions is an added dimension of evangelism which finds expression in yearly projects.

The internship program at CBS is a valuable opportunity for the students. Everyone involved in the three-year study program is required to spend ten weeks in a specific local ministry. The usual response to this program is positive. Students become directly involved with people in the local church in a realistic way. Because of the variety of experiences, the students are better prepared for their own individual ministry.

This year CBS has seventy-three students. Growth has been steady over the years, and there is much cause for rejoicing. As plans proceed for a separate CBS building, hopes are high that even more Christian men will choose CBS as their training ground for ministry.

1. STOP AND GET YOUR BEARINGS:

"For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23

This is where the Bible says we are now. We are missing the holy standard of God for Heaven because of sin.

2. FIND OUT WHERE YOU ARE PRESENTLY HEADED:

"The wages of sin is death..." Romans 6:23

This is spiritual death or eternal separation from God. You are headed for hell as a sinner. You are now on the wrong road!

3. GET RID OF EXCESS BAGGAGE:

"Repent ye therefore, and be ye converted that your sins may be blotted out..." Acts 3:19

Your sins are separating you from God. In order to come into His presence, you must get rid of them.

4. CHANGE YOUR DIRECTION:

"Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under Heaven given among men whereby we MUST be saved." Acts 4:13 (Speaking of Jesus Christ)

5. TURN RIGHT:

You have been going the wrong way; trying to save yourself through good works, baptism, church membership, prayers, etc. or simply not thinking about where you are going when you die. As the above verse shows, salvation is a MUST and it can only be obtained through Jesus Christ! Change your direction now.

To summarize, here is how to get to Heaven from Washington, D.C. or from wherever you are:

RECOGNIZE your helpless, sinful condition.

REALIZE that sin condemns you to hell.

REPENT or turn away from your sin and turn to Christ.

REST in Christ's complete payment for your sin on the Cross. and RECEIVE HIM into your heart and life NOW.

"But as many as RECEIVED HIM, to them gave He power to become the sons of God: even to them who believe on His name." John 1:12

THIS IS GOD'S ROAD MAP TO HEAVEN. If you try to get there some other way you will be eternally and irrevocably lost!
